The Sale of Food & Beverages

A comprehensive listing of the Amarillo Civic Center Complex's venue regulations and guidelines can be viewed online at www.amarilociviccenter.com. The following items are a brief reference to explain the policy regarding the sale of food and beverages at the Amarillo Civic Center Complex. The Civic Center Complex policy on the sale or distribution of food and beverages by an outside source is as follows:

1. Any item that may be easily consumed on site may not be sold or given away outside the control of the Civic Center Complex's contracted concessionaire. Items sold in bulk or for resale off of the Civic Center premises will be allowed pending approval of Civic Center Complex Management. Authorized vendors will only be allowed to sell items in quantities of 8ozs. or greater in sealed packages. This includes but is not limited to candy, cookies, fudge, ice cream, caramel apples, nuts, and beef jerky.
2. No beverages are to be sold or given away outside the control of the concessionaire.
3. Any exception to this policy is by written approval Civic Center Complex Management.

The above policy is in keeping with the contract between the City of Amarillo and the Civic Center Complex concessionaire. Please understand that it is the lessee's responsibility to see that your vendors are in compliance with this policy. Lessees with vendors not in compliance with Civic Center Complex policy will be in violation of their contract and may be denied future bookings in the Amarillo Civic Center Complex. Vendors not in compliance may be required to leave. Thank you for your cooperation.

If you have any questions concerning this policy, please contact the Amarillo Civic Center Complex management staff, 806-378-4297.
